

Confident Girls Foundation & Suncorp Natural Disaster Relief Fund Terms and Conditions

Netball and community organisations across Australia directly affected by Natural Disasters, specifically, bushfires and floods during 2023-2024 may be eligible for a Grant from the Confident Girls Foundation.

These Terms and Conditions together with the Grant Guidelines apply to Applicants for the grant. By applying, you agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions, the Grant Guidelines, and the Confident Girls Foundation's Privacy Policy and Privacy Statement (as applicable) (Agreement).

Eligibility

Applicants must meet the Eligibility Criteria set out in the Grant Guidelines to qualify for a grant:

Evidence

The Confident Girls Foundation may ask applicants to submit evidence in support of their applications. Applicants may also be asked to provide further information and documents.

Conditions for Payment

- Grants must be used for costs associated with the application.
- Grants must not be used for any of the excluded costs set out in the Grant Guidelines.
- Payment will be made via EFT to the applicant's nominated organisation bank account following receipt of an invoice(s) and execution of the Agreement.
- Grants must be fully expended within 12 months of the executed Agreement.

Verification

- The information applicants provide must be true and may be inspected, audited, verified, or confirmed at any time in accordance with the Grant Guidelines and these Terms and Conditions.
- The Confident Girls Foundation may request verification/confirmation about your application from you or any other private or public authority, for the purpose of administering the Grant, subject to any applicable legal requirements. Verification/confirmation may include, without limitation, any or all of the following:
 - Requesting and receiving additional information.
 - Confirmation that the Eligibility, Evidence, and Conditions for Payment requirements have been met.

- Applicants must retain all tax invoices, official receipts, bank statements, quotations, or other similar records for assistance received under the Grants program until one year after the closing day for applications for the eligible disaster.
- By making an application, you acknowledge that:
 - Providing false or misleading information to a public authority, or hiding facts, may be an offence and may result in criminal penalties.
 - If any overpayment is made as a result of an incorrect, misleading, or fraudulent claim, you may be required to return the Grant in full.

Closure, Suspension, or Variation of the Program

- The Confident Girls Foundation reserves the right, at any time, to:
 - Vary the Grant Guidelines, these Terms and Conditions, and the process for application;
 - Suspend the operation of, or close, the application process;
 - Alter or change the opening and closing date for applications; and
 - Reduce or extend the application period.
- Any changes to the Grant Guidelines, these Terms and Conditions, or action taken to suspend or end the Program will be notified on the relevant Confident Girls Foundation's website.

General

- Applicants are responsible for seeking any necessary financial and other advice.
- No rights under these Terms and Conditions will be waived except by notice in writing signed by both the applicant and the relevant agency.
- The Program and all related documents are governed by the laws of the State of Victoria (location of the Confident Girls Foundation offices).
- Where the Confident Girls Foundation has issued a notice to the email address provided by the applicant, the notification will be deemed to have been received by the applicant immediately upon receipt of electronic transmission confirmation.
